PALMA

LOVE LETTER

Excellent restaurants, vibrant Tapas Bars, cozy beach and city cafés, glamorous boutique hotels, rich in history, and splendid beaches with crystal clear water - Palma has the benefits of both a traditional, yet modern and vibrant city and a striking seafront location. An explosion of new trendy places during the last years changed the so-called 'pearl of the Mediterranean' considerably and makes it more beautiful today than ever. Yet, despite the modernity, the Mediterranean flair can still be felt in every corner.

This Palma Guide will show you a curated selection of our favorite places to "sleep, eat, drink, shop and explore". From cozy coffeeshops, where young, trendy people sip their lattes, local Tapas Bars and internationally acclaimed gourmet restaurants, to some of the most beautiful Finca retreats, this guide will lead you away from the tourist hubs to some of Palma's hidden local gems.

ES PRINCEP

SMALL LUXURY HOTEL

At this hotel, unique luxury meets the charm of Mallorca. Es Princep is situated in a quiet corner of the old town overlooking the Cathedral and offers magnificent panoramic views of Palma Bay. The spacious rooftop terrace with an infinity pool, a luxurious spa and two restaurants makes this place the ultimate urban getaway. The hotel is chic and modern with plenty of natural light, and good ventilation. There are 68 elegant and tastefully decorated rooms liveried in neutral shades. Contemporary art, dark wood furniture and flooring, and taupe-hued sofas are featured across all rooms. The hotel restaurant Balaroja serves gourmet Majorcan and Mediterranean cuisine in a quiet ambience and offers exposed excavations from a medieval tannery for the would-be archaeologists.
