THE TOP PALMA POOL TERRACES

By Andrew Forbes

Luxury on the Mediterranean island of Mallorca is reaching new heights. A wave of gorgeous new boutique hotels has reached the island's capital; and each has something in common - a pool with a view. So, dive into summer with our guide to the best pool terraces in Palma.

Es Princep Hotel

Almaq is the pinnacle of Sky bar style. Ride the sparkling new elevators of this Leading Hotels of the World property to the 5th floor and step out to one of the best Mediterranean views in the city.

This must be the biggest roof terrace in the old town; with plenty of luxurious sun loungers, as well as a chill out area, and of course a pool with a view. Tempting signature cocktails and gourmet bites will tempt you as you kick back and soak up those vistas of Palma's sparkling bay.

Es Princep is Palma's latest luxury hotel. It has a destination cocktail bar, Gremium; fine-dining at the hotel's Bala Roja restaurant; and an upscale spa, Es Princep's luxury Coco oasis spa.
